New outlook on the world

SEP 06 1985

A kingergarten student at Rawsonville Elementary School in the Van Buren School District contemplates the outside world as he peers out the window of a school bus Thursday.

Area students in both public and private schools wind up the end of the Labor Day-shortened first week of school today, with a full slate of classes scheduled for all area districts next week.

Detroit man recovered in the Straits of Mackinac may be the first documented suicide from the 28-year-old Mackinac Bridge. The body of Werner Paulick of Sterling Heights was pulled from 150-foot-deep waters and taken to Northern Michigan Hospitals in Petoskey for an autopsy.

Synfuels subsidies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Synthetic Fuels Corp. will delay awarding nearly $750 million in federal subsidies this month until President Reagan decides if he wants to do away with the embattled agency. The corporation's chairman, Edward E. Noble, made the pledge during a White House meeting in the wake of a 312-111 vote by the House to effectively scuttle the 5-year-old agency.
